Roam

Welcome to the path less travelled.

There is a time in your life when you realise your bucket list is quite long. Is it simply too hard to choose which place to visit first, or is it about the kind of experience in your chosen country?

Are you intrigued by the story of Che Guevara in Cuba? Curious about the unique ecosystems of the Galapagos?

Maybe you are passionate about music and always wanted to see New Orleans and the iconic Graceland? Or the foods of Thailand waiting to be taste tested?

You will be delighted to know we have gathered our favourite experiences and quality travel providers around the world in one place to get you started.

“Every game drive is different, but one thing East Africa guarantees is going back to camp each night completely revelling from the adventures the day held.
Melissa, Ferrymead.”

Jordan Explorer with Peregrine

Jordan was once part of the Fertile Crescent, the arcing region of the Middle East that birthed the world as we know it. Countless mighty kingdoms have risen and fallen here, and their glorious remains make Jordan a well of ancient history. There's Petra, The Rose City, with its colossal facades carved into pink stone; and Jerash with its abounding roman pillars, amphitheatres and temples. Even Wadi Rum, the desert valley strewn with mystical rock formations, supports a people as old as the region itself.
